

On the phase retrieval problem in two dimensions

I. Sabba Stefanescu

Institut für Theoretische Kernphysik, Universität Karlsruhe, Karlsruhe, West Germany

(Received 9 August 1984; accepted for publication 8 March 1985)

The paper contains a discussion of the phase retrieval problem in two dimensions and proposes criteria to select those resolutions of the discrete ambiguity of the zero trajectories which are compatible with the analyticity in two variables of the scattered field.